ROADS REMOVE LOCAL OBSTACLE OUTLET BRIDGE MATTER IS AGAIN UP TO STATE AUTHORITIES

Casements and Options, at Cost of $17,900, Secured and Approved by Unanimous Vote—Greene Notified—Other Business Done by Board.

The board of supervisors, at a special session held Wednesday evening, by a unanimous vote adopted a report of the committee on rights of way favoring the taking of options on easements and on purchase of necessary property requested by the state highway commissioner so that the contract for the construction of the state highway bridge across the Rondout creek from Slighsburg to Kingston might be signed by Commissioner Greene without delay.

Immediately following the close of the session Clerk DeWitt filed a telegram to the state highway commissioner notifying it that the easements and options had been released or secured and that construction on these parcels may be started without further liability on the part of the state of New York.

Attending the session were members of the Chamber of Commerce, of the Ulster County Automobile Club, taxpayers of the city of Kingston and the town of Esopus, and Messrs. Thomas Flannigan, Charles R. O'Connor and William R. Harrison, the committee appointed to present resolutions favoring action in the bridge matter, that were adopted at the meeting held at the Y. M. C. A. on Tuesday evening.

It was 8 o'clock when Chairman Eagle called the members to order and the call of the roll by Clerk Henry R. DeWitt showed all the members present excepting Supervisor Avery of Hardenbergh and Supervisor Briggs of Denning. The former arrived shortly after the session started.

The first matter brought before the board was the introduction of an act by Supervisor Young authorizing the town of Wawarsing to borrow $10,000 for the construction of two bridges in that town on the highway between Ellenville and Wurtsboro, the electors of the town having voted at the spring election in favor of the appropriation and the town board having by resolution approved of such appropriation.

Supervisor Wilkin of the town of Shawangunk introduced an act authorizing that town to borrow $10,000 for the placing of a floor on the concrete bridge over the Wallkill creek in the village of Wallkill.

After the electors of the town having voted in favor of such an appropriation at the spring election, and the town board having by resolution approved such an appropriation, bills following the issue of bonds by each of the two towns were later read by the committee on the part of the whole. Supervisor Francher, in the chair, read the bills and approved, and the committee when it was recommended the passage of both bills. Under the law the bills will be over for twenty-four hours and will be taken up for final passage this evening when the board will meet again.

The Committee on Rights of Way then submitted the following report which was read:

Gentlemen:—I beg to transmit herewith options and offers covering all of the rights of way and easements required for the Rondout bridge that have not already been required. I have discussed the price mentioned in these options with the committee of this board on the purchase of rights of way, and in their opinion and mine, the figures in these options are reasonable, and should be accepted.

During the past few days considerable criticism has appeared in the public press of this board and its officials, presumably myself, as I had this matter in charge. The criticism may be classed under two specific heads:

First, a failure to call the board of supervisors in session to act.

Second, a failure to commence condemnation proceedings.

As has been stated in the press, the maps were sent to me about February 1st, but at that time there was not sufficient money available for the construction of the bridge; and until the last appropriation of $120,000 was made available by the passage of the Walton-Van Wagoner bill, and the signing of the same by the governor on or about March 22nd, it was not possible to build the bridge.

It may be of interest that the first bill was passed in 1912; that the first year was elapsed since that time, and that five different plans for the bridge have been prepared by four different committees. The secretary of the state of New York, and the state of possible construction have been obtained by the county of Ulster.

The first plan was designed by Commissioner Reel, and was rejected by the war department. The second plan was made by Commissioner Carr, and was a two span steel structure, and it may be of interest to you to know that one span was 213 feet and the other 225 feet, thereby necessitating the designing of each span of steel in each span differently.

The third plan was made by Commissioner Duffey and the rights of way, easements and options, therefore, were obtained from all the necessary parties, so that the building of the bridge as far as that was concerned.

TRUCKMEN KEPT BUSY MOVING FAMILIES HERE

Some Truckmen Working Up to 9 O'clock At Night and Can't Keep Caught Up With Deliveries—Fully One Hundred Families Forced To Move.

Today was the greatest moving day in the history of Kingston since that historic day when the city was burned by the British, and it was estimated by one large truckman that fully one hundred families have been forced to move by reason of the property they occupied being sold, or else they had been forced to purchase a house in order to have a home and be free from the annoyance of having to move at a moment's notice.

In fact not only today, but all this week the local truckmen have been kept busy moving families from one location to another, and some of the truckmen have been forced to work until 9 o'clock at night, and still are behind in their work. The housing situation in Kingston is a serious one, for in addition to the families who have been forced to vacate the first of April, many other families have received notice within the past few days to vacate by the first of May as the property had been sold.

Not only is the housing problem a serious one, but the housing problem is just as serious. Houses that formerly rented for $10 and $12 a month, are now being rented for $18 and $20, and the tenants have either had to pay the increased rent or move. Those who were in a better position financially to do so, as they were unable to find other quarters, but those who have not been able to pay the increased rent are up against a problem that is causing them sleepless nights.

In talking over the moving situation with one of the city's largest truckmen he stated that many of his moving orders were from families moving to Kingston from New York, Brooklyn, Long Island, and New Jersey points. He said that he had enough work ahead moving furniture and household effects to keep all of his teams and rigs busy all week. All truckmen in town were using all of their auto and horse equipment in an effort to catch up with deliveries.

A number of families who were served with dispossession notices by the city marshal have been given a few days grace in order that they may obtain other apartments. If the city marshal has to dispossess all the families he has served with notices from the landlords he will have to swear in a few more deputies to help him with the work.

Those who own their own homes or who have not been forced to vacate are in a position to sit back and utter a sigh of relief when they realize the difficulties of their neighbors in trying to solve the housing problem.

THE TISSUE CO. STRIKE SETTLED

The strike of about 200 workers at the plant of The Tissue Company in Saugerties, who walked out Wednesday morning, demanding an 8-hour working day, has been settled and the men resumed work this morning.

An agreement has been reached whereby the men will start work at 7:15 a. m. and quit at 5 p. m., with Saturday afternoons off, this being equivalent to eight working hours per day.

ROSENDALE BUS LINE Applies to P. S. C.

By Telegraph to The Freeman. Albany, April 1.—There will be an early hearing by the public service commission, Second district, on the application of John L. Sullivan of Rosendale for a certificate of convenience and necessity for the operation of an auto bus line in Kingston as part of a line to Lawrenceville and passing through Rosendale, Maple Hill and Bloomington. Sullivan intends to operate between Rosendale and Kingston in the winter season. He has secured the required consent from the Kingston authorities.

Child Hit By Auto.

John C. Morris, 5 years old, grandson of Nicholas Schermerhorn of Cedar street, was hit by the automobile of Dr. George S. Warren of Pearl street, shortly after 2 o'clock this afternoon on Broadway, near Cedar street. The boy was injured about the head and shoulder. He was removed to his home and examined by Dr. Warren, of Cedar and Freeman. It was not thought that his injuries will prove fatal.

The private dinner which was to have been held at Prihan Hall Friday evening, April 2, has been postponed to a future date by the committee in charge.

ALL FIVE SOCIALISTS EXPELLED FROM ASSEMBLY BY LARGE MAJORITY

Outlawing of Party Not To Be Voted On Until New Bills Are Introduced—Party Lines Disregarded In Vote Which Comes After Long, Exciting Session.

By Telegraph to The Freeman. Albany, N. Y., April 1.—Amid scenes that were tensely dramatic, the state assembly today expelled permanently the five Socialist members from New York city.

They were found by the assembly to be disloyal to the state and to the nation and as such unfit to sit in the assembly chamber.

Party lines were cast aside in the voting and generally the members voted as their individual opinions dictated.

Each of the five men was voted on individually.

The vote on Louis Waldman was 115 to 25; on August Claessens and Charles Solomon, 116 to 28. No definite charges were pending against Samuel DeWitt and Samuel Orr, the remaining Socialists, other than that membership in the Socialist party made them unfit to sit in writing the laws of New York state, but both were ousted by votes of 104 to 40.

The vote was finally reached after nearly 24 hours of continuous debate, which continued without letup throughout the night. No recesses for meals or rest were taken, and when the vote was finally reached the members were looking haggard and tired in their seats, heavy-eyed from want of sleep and apparently wanting nothing so much as to get the matter ended.

Whatever the assembly decides to do on the recommendation of the majority report to "outlaw" the Socialist party at the polls will be done in legislation now being drafted and ready for introduction either late today or tomorrow, according to Speaker Sweet.

HULINGS SELL EAGLE GARAGE

Former Employees Of The New York Board Of Water Supply Are New Owners—Incorporation Papers Filed.

The Eagle garage at 10-12 Main street has been sold by the Hulings brothers to R. N. Wheeler, J. P. Mack and James P. Cavanaugh of this city.

Articles of incorporation have been filed by the new concern, the Eagle Garage, Inc., in Albany. The capital stock is $32,500. The new owners were formerly connected with the New York Board of Water Supply.

The Eagle garage was built by the Porshy & Davis Motor Car Company who, after operating for several years, sold out to Clarke Snyder and Jay Every. The Hulings brothers purchased the garage from these owners, January 15, 1919. Ray Huling who has been in charge of the garage expects to go back to training seals.

Freight And Passenger Service On Hudson River Officially Opened Today—Poughkeepsie Here To Day From New York—Getting Tugs Ready.

Passenger and freight service on the Hudson river was officially opened for the season of 1920-21 when the steamer Homer Ramsdell of the Central Hudson Line left Kingston at 7 o'clock this morning for New York city. The steamer Poughkeepsie of the same line is expected in some time today from New York.

The Central Hudson Line has not set a date as yet for the resumption of service between Kingston and Albany. The steamer J. H. Tremper, which runs on that route, is being overhauled at Newburgh and will shortly be ready to be placed in commission. The B. C. Odell, which spent the winter at Poughkeepsie, is now at Newburgh where she will undergo slight repairs and repainting before being placed on the route.

As stated before, the Hudson River Day Line season will open on May 15, which is much earlier than in past seasons. The Albany, which has spent the winter at the Sunflower Dock in the Rondout creek, is in excellent shape and will be ready when the season opens.

The Mary Powell, which was bought by down river junk dealers last fall, is still at the Sunflower Dock, but will likely be shortly towed down the river and broken up.

The tug Earl of the Cornell Steamboat Company is being gotten ready to go into commission, and after helping the tug Rob in some harbor work here will probably be sent to Newburgh.

The Hudson river is now open from Troy to New York.

FIRE BOARD MONTHLY MEETING

At the regular monthly meeting of the board of fire commissioners held at their rooms in Central Fire Station, Wednesday evening, the annual report of the chief engineer was submitted. An exempt firemen's certificate was granted E. W. Cunningham, who has served his time as active member of Excelsior Hose Company, No. 4. The same company reported that the following had been made active members: Fred Van Wagoner, Frank McSpirt, Arthur McSpirt, Kenneth Stoutenberg, Paul Perlman, Archie Hughes, Jr., Francis J. Winn, Daniel J. Cassidy.

The very desirable residence property of Dr. William H. Connolly, corner of Fair and Franklin streets, has been sold through the Ulster Realty Company to Newton H. Foxworth, at $10,000, at law of this city.

There were six still alarms Wednesday caused by fires from different parts of the city. All the companies were out, even the fire of Superintendent Elmsdorf being called out.

Tonight's Exempt Firemen will speak at the Salvation Army Hall on "Verily." The band will be present and furnish a special musical program.

The Kingston Motor Car Exchange, William Glass manager, today received a second outfit of public trucks for the commercial trucks.

A military drill will be opened at 424 Broadway Saturday night, 7 p. m. The drill will be given by the 101st Infantry.

BRIDGE CONTRACT NOW AWAITS SIGNATURE OF TERRY & TENCH

Then Commissioner Greene Will Sign It If the Comptroller Approves—Now in the Hands of the Contractors Who Are Expected to Sign Today—Usual Process Reversed in Order to Save Time.

The contract for the completion of the Rondout creek bridge is now in the hands of the Terry & Tench Company for signing and Commissioner Greene has informed that company that the road is now clear of all obstacles, a satisfactory right of way having been secured, and urged that the contract be signed and returned to him at once. He was informed that in all probability the contract would be signed and sent on its way to Albany today.

As soon as it is received in Albany it will be submitted to the State Comptroller, together with the telegram received from Clerk DeWitt, which was sent Wednesday night and reads as follows:

Kingston, New York, March 31, 1920.

To Honorable V. A. Huie,
Secretary State Highway Commission,
Albany, New York.

This is to certify that all the parcels of land covered by L. T. Maps, numbers one, one and one half, two, three R two, three and one half, three and three quarters, five R two, six R two, and 7 R two for the Kingston-Port Ewen State Highway, number five five nine nine C, Route four, section eight, have been released, put under option or purchased outright, pursuant to the Highway Law, so that construction may be started on these parcels without further liability to the State of New York, or the contractor.

HENRY R. DEWITT,
Clerk of the Board of Supervisors of Ulster Co.

This telegram was confirmed today by Clerk DeWitt by letter, which will also be submitted to the Comptroller. When and if the Comptroller approves the contract Commissioner Greene will sign it and it will be in force. All of these formalities should be completed in two or three days Commissioner Greene informed The Freeman this morning.

Commissioner Greene explained that he had reversed the usual process of first submitting the contract to the Comptroller in order to save time, as had he waited until today two or three days would have been lost.

The building of the bridge is now up to the Terry & Tench Company, whose check for $19,000 is now held by the State Highway Department to be forfeited if they fail to sign the contract.

CHEAPER ICE IN CITY THIS YEAR

With taxes, rents, food, clothing, etc., mounting in price by leaps and bounds it will be good news to the consumers of ice this summer to learn that the retail price of "winter fruit for summer use" will be $2 a ton cheaper than last year. The delivery of ice is divided into three classes. The price to coolers and ice cream manufacturers this season will be 16 cents per 100 pounds. Last year it was 30 cents. Ice to stores will cost 50 cents a 100 pounds; last year it was 60 cents. The family trade will pay 60 a 100 pounds for ice, which last season cost them 70 cents for the same amount.

One large ice dealer stated this morning that 100 pounds of this year's ice would probably be worth to the consumer 150 pounds of last year's product because the quality is so much better. The ice harvested the past winter was the best ever seen, said one of the large dealers. None of it was struck, or "peniciled," as it is called in the trade.

TWO NAMED FOR RECORDING CLERK

Miss Frances R. Jacobson of Hasbrouck avenue and Miss Anita M. Clearwater of 279 Clinton avenue have been appointed recording clerks in the county service, from the civil service list, having passed the state examination. Miss Clearwater is at the county clerk's office in the recording room, and Miss Jacobson in the surrogate's office. Both fill vacancies, the latter taking the place of Miss Helen Rumsel, who resigned some time ago, and the latter the vacancy caused by the resignation of Miss Alpha M. Moor, who resigned last October to assume a position in New York. Since the vacancy caused by Miss Moore's resignation, the work has been looked after by Surrogate Gill and other office employees. There has been a saving since October, 1917, of $2,300.

SPRINGTIME AND WAR MEMORIES

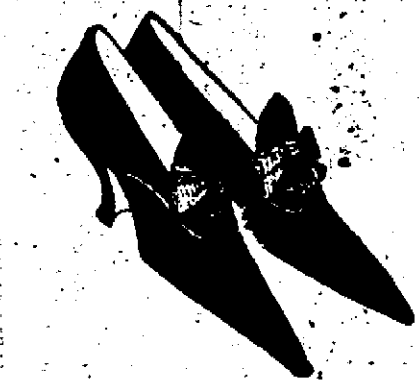

The following poem was written by Christina Vicinus Durr one year ago today on the occasion of the "Welcome Home" for the men of Ulster county, and in honor of Lester F. Diehl, who fought in the Great War.

Springtime.

Springtime! Yes we are glad it is here.
We miss some of the buds we had last year.
Some of our hearts are lonely and sad,
And others, we know, are bounding and glad.
Some lads fell asleep on a foreign shore,
And left hearts aching forever more.
Some returned, and a welcome throng,
Kept their hearts singing all day long.
We honor both, the living and dead,
Each did his part, when all is said.
We welcome all, from every clime,
To part no more in God's Springtime.
Springtime, yes, how balm the air!
The sun shines bright, the sky is fair.
We help to sing a glad some song,
As we mingle again with the welcome throng.
Then paused and offered a fervent prayer
For our loved ones sleeping over there.
Between sadness and mirth we are torn apart,
And scarce know the feeling that fills each heart.
But this we know, we honor them all,
May God keep us ready to answer His call.
To be true and faithful, go at any time,
We may all unite in His own Springtime.
Springtime! Yes, the buds are here,
The earth's awake, the grass grows green.
The clothes herself in glad array,
To welcome home our boys today.
Our doubtful thoughts, and fears, and dread,
We'll hide in honor of our dead.
Who gave their lives that we might live,
A safe and honored country.
And we'll welcome these who have returned,
God only knows how our hearts have yearned.
Joyous and happy we all shall meet,
When at His feet we kneel, in His Springtime!
Springtime! Yes the birds are here,
The earth seems filled with love and cheer.
And Mother Earth seems to start anew
To find all the good that she can do;
To cover the places so bleak and bare
With sunshine and flowers every where.
To teach us mortals here below,
To help where we can, as on we go,
For the "little ones" who may need your hand,
Are the ones to help, in His command.
Those who sleep in Him, both yours and mine,
We will guard and keep 'til His own Springtime.

AGAIN THE BUCK PASSES.

The Ulster County Board of Supervisors has voted unanimously to provide the right of way required for the Rondout creek bridge, just as everyone knew the Board would, once it was permitted to meet and consider the matter. The enormous ($1 sum of $17,900 is involved and the failure to provide this would have made impossible the building of a $637,000 bridge. But let bygones be bygones. We will not mourn over spilled milk nor milk that was nearly spilled. Let us keep a vigilant eye on the present and future.

We are one step nearer but the bridge is not yet built. The contract, even when signed by Commissioner Greene, is not yet in force. It must be approved by the State Comptroller. So it seems that the constantly passing buck now rests in the hands of another State official who may or may not show a disposition to quibble and play politics by seeking to find some flaw in the plans of the Highway Department.

WASTING PRECIOUS PAPER.

Apparently in an effort to keep up the standard of usefulness attained when it tried to teach farmers wives how to make cottage cheese, the Department of Agriculture has issued a bulletin on "Selection and Care of Clothing." In the space of 32 pages of paper secured with great difficulty because of the shortage, the Department touches on every phase of the clothing question except how to get the price. For instance, the taxpayer who comes into possession of one of these bulletins will learn that "clothing should always be comfortable and healthful; it must protect the body from cold, heat, moisture, rough surfaces, according to need," all of which might not occur to people who are busy earning a living, if they did not have a Department of Agriculture to impress the facts upon their minds.

Then, too, there is the solemn admonition that the lines of the clothing "should be in harmony with or improve the lines of the figure." This suggestion may lead to greater care among farmers in selection of clothes that will show off their figures to advantage. Too bad that Maude Miller didn't have this bulletin in her possession on that fateful day when the judge drove on. More careful selection of her clothing with a view to "improving the lines of the figure" might have been the single necessary factor in winning the judge.

But, to turn over a page of the bulletin—we learn that "generally, little can be done to undergarments except to patch or darn worn places, to sew on buttons, or perhaps to re-work frayed button holes." And that valuable advice is followed by the even more practical suggestion that "women's dresses may often be freshened and made to look new simply by cleansing," etc., and "men's hats may be freshened by re-blocking and renewing the ribbon."

It's too bad space will not permit a quotation from every page of the bulletin, but, hampered by lack of paper, we feel impelled to skip a few pages to present the following admonition deemed by the Department of Agriculture essential to the prosperity and happiness of the farming element of our population: "Socks and stockings may be of cotton, wool or silk, and should be long enough not to cramp the toes." Whatever other information in the bulletin may be overlooked, this should not be forgotten. Teachers in rural schools might well copy it on blackboards in order that it may be permanently fixed in the pupils' minds while their intellectual faculties are still at a receptive stage. After they have grown out in the world and have become mentally unbalanced by grappling with income tax problems, they may not be capable of receiving and retaining such highly technical and scientific information as this. Many a child might, in after years, wear socks made of hemp, or wool yarn, or even iron or some other material that would give rise to foot troubles far worse than bunions or old-fashioned corns.

On the whole, we believe that this bulletin on "Selection and Care of Clothing" is one of the best pieces of literature issued by the Department of Agriculture since the Wilson administration came into power. The only really censurable feature of the publication is the fact that the back page contains only five lines of printed matter. A thoughtful and truly economical Secretary of Agriculture would have filled up the balance of the page with such practical suggestions as these: "Seeds should be planted in spring," "Weeds can be killed by hoeing," and "Make hay while the sun shines." A page of suggestions along this line would have been in entire harmony with the character of the main portion of the bulletin, and, appearing on the back page, would have attracted the particular attention of the farmer and his family during those long periods of idleness when there is nothing to do on the farm.

VISUAL TEACHING AT SCHOOL SIX

Efforts of Parent-Teachers Ass'n. Friends, Pupils And Teachers Resulted In Buying $300 Set Of Lantern Slides.

School No. 6 has purchased a three hundred dollar set of lantern slides from Underwood and Underwood for use in giving visual instruction in the class room. The set of slides purchased is the best selected by Dr. Frank McMurry of Teachers College and by other educators as being the best suited for general educational purposes. The slides can be used in teaching nearly all the school subjects, including geography, history, literature, language, storytelling, nature study, and reading.

Visual instruction has become an important feature in teaching and No. 6 is to make use of this method of class room instruction. The purchase of this set of slides was made possible by a gift of $100 from seven friends and patrons of the school, by a contribution of $100 from the Parent-Teachers Association, and by the teachers and pupils raising the remaining $100. The pupils of the school have been much interested in the plan and during the past three months have raised their quota of $100 for the slides.

Cause of Breathlessness.

Breathlessness is caused by insufficiency of the heart either from lack of proper exercise or from disease. The heart fails to pump the blood to the lungs fast enough and accordingly the CO2 accumulates and overstimulates the breathing center. This causes the sensation of inability to breathe fast enough.

Special Light to Test Colors.

An electric color-testing instrument is designed for textiles, wall papers, coloring materials, etc., and with a special arc light applies the fading power of the sun for 20 hours. Forty samples may be tested at once, each being partly covered, so that the faded colors can be directly compared with the originals.

Possible Platinum Beds.

Possible sources of supply of platinum are the river gravels in southern Borneo, where further prospecting is required, and various districts in North Ontario, and the stream placers in Alaska, which are being investigated by the United States geological survey.

April 1, 1910.—Mrs. Edgar Eltinge died at her home on Wall street. Team of horses owned by H. S. Crispell Company and auto owned by M. Stein were backed off ferry Transport at Rhinecliff; horses drowned, but truck and auto were later hauled out.

Why I Love America.

Now ask me why I love America! Such homes as mine are to be found all the country over and they are what make it a great country. Every boy scout has these loved ones that he prizes above all others. For these we would gladly give our lives, for all boys scouts are brave and unselfish. Being unselfish we are not only interested in the happiness of our loved ones, but we are determined to see that every other family is just as happy as our own.—Lieut. Belvin W. Maynard in Boys' Life.

Keep Up Your Confidence.

The majority of failures began to deteriorate by doubting or depreciating themselves or by losing confidence in their own ability. The moment you harbor doubt and begin to lose faith in yourself you capitulate to the enemy. Every time you acknowledge weakness, inefficiency or lack of ability you weaken your self-confidence, and that is to undermine the very foundation of all achievement.—Orison Swett Marden in Chicago Daily News.

Self-Sacrificing Mamma.

There is a little boy in our neighborhood whose father has been dead for several years. Often we speak of him in a pitying manner on account of his loss. Yesterday we youngest rushed into the house exclaiming: "Have you heard the news? Jamie's mamma has gone and married a papa for him."—Chicago Tribune.

Why Breathe Through the Nose?

Reasons for breathing through the nose instead of the mouth are: (1) to warm the air; (2) to moisten the air; (3) to remove the dust and germs; (4) to produce more suction in the chest, which helps draw blood into the lungs as well as air. Thus, helping the heart and more easily attaining second wind.

Use the Toothbrush.

Beware the toothbrush man whose game is about the world seeking whom they may delude. "There the brush and spit the tooth"—that's what says the proverbial specialist.

Genius.
The book reviewer of Everybody's Magazine drops somewhat unaccountably into these rhetorical reflections on genius: "It is the queerest thing in the world, the most unexplainable. It burns now in the mind of a tax-collector's son in apical Rome, now in a test-maker of Persia, now in a livery keeper's son in London, now in a miser of pills in a dreary Norwegian town. Like the wind, it blowseth whither it listeth. It is a fire that may not be quenched, either by failure or success. And whether we know it or not, its rays light the paths of all of us."

Avoid the Cynic.
If you want to retain a wholesome view of life, if you want to hold your faith in mankind, if you want to have enduring peace of mind, keep away from cynics. Should any such be among your acquaintances, give them a wide berth. They may be bright, clever, entertaining people. Cynics often are, but they are infectious people.—Chicago.

INTERCHURCH CONFERENCE HERE

The churches of Ulster county will convene in the First Baptist Church, Kingston, next Monday, April 5th, for the purpose of listening to the presentation of a statement of Inter-church World Movement and a general comprehensive statement of world conditions. There will be three sessions of the conference, at 10:30 a. m., 3 p. m. and 7:30 p. m. Some very fine speakers have been secured. Some of the addresses will be supplemented by very fine stereoscopic pictures showing very vividly the great needs of the world for Jesus Christ. Every church in the county is urged to be represented at the conference by the largest possible delegation. The conference church is located at the junction of Albany avenue and Broadway. Rev. Arthur S. Cole, 193 Clinton avenue, is the pastor.

A young people's conference will also be held parallel to the main county conference. It will begin its sessions at 4:30 in the afternoon. With an evening session at 7:30. This time and place for the young people of the churches to get a vision of the present program of the church. These two sessions will be held at the First Presbyterian Church, located at the corner of Elmendorf street and Tremper avenue. Rev. Dr. Putnam Cady, 185 Tremper avenue, is the pastor.

Ellenville, March 31—Attorney Lounsbury has purchased one of the Eaton cottages on Maple avenue which he and Mrs. Lounsbury are to occupy after April 1. James A. Myers takes possession of the home vacated by the Lounsbury family which he purchased at the Misses Newkirk.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Ryan have moved to their resident property on Park street vacated by Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Kimble.

Mrs. Clarence Gerow of Washingtonville was a guest of her cousin, Mrs. Ben M. Taylor, and family over the week end.

George McCord of New York spent Sunday with friends in Ellenville.

Mrs. George Wood of Hickory street spent the past week with her sister, Mrs. Jacob Green, at Greenfield. Mrs. Green has been quite ill some time but is reported to be improving.

Mrs. H. W. Coons and children are spending the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Cook, at Red Hook.

Mr. Paul Nichols has returned from a visit of several weeks with his family, Brooklyn and at Guttenberg, N. J. She was accompanied home by her sister, Mrs. Marguerite of New York.

Miss Lena Schaeffer, head dining room girl at the Mitchell House, has been confined to her home the past week by illness.

The newly appointed postmaster, William L. Fuller, will assume charge of the local office April 1. Mr. Fuller is well qualified for the office having served as postmaster several years under Republican administrations.

Mrs. James W. McCartney, who suffered a severe attack of acute indigestion and was very ill for several days, is reported to be recovering.

Charles F. Goldsmith, local builder and contractor, has just received a car of asphalt shingles.

At the annual meeting of the village board of trustees, the newly elected president, J. W. Millard, was in the chair. Trustees Boyce, Burlington and Palmer were present. The following were appointed: Village clerk, C. G. A. Finner; street commissioner, Henry Shaffer; police and sanitary inspector, Arch Freer; night watchman, John Brown.

President J. M. Hoorbeck of the water board presented his annual report. The clerk was directed to have same published in local papers together with the report of the outgoing president L. A. Hoorbeck. Several committees were appointed for village ordinances, and for Mountain Brook repairs.

An engagement, which is of interest to our friends, is that announced by Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Brady of Middletown, formerly of Ellenville, of their daughter, Miss Florence Brady, to Earl W. Sutherland of Boston, Mass., son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Sutherland, of Fort Plain, N. Y. Miss Brady was born in Ellenville. She has a host of friends who extend very hearty congratulations.

Miss Ellen TerBush, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. TerBush, of Greenfield, was at Middletown on Saturday for the wedding of Miss Florence Whitley and Andrew A. Berg, and had an important part in the service as she played the wedding march.

The state daylight saving law that went into effect Sunday morning resulted in very heavy morning traffic, and many were up bright and early, but the custom of several of the churches to turn the clocks back and many church attendances did not meet for church until the usual hour.

At the evening hours of worship, the service was righted and everything moved off as if no new order had happened, and Monday morning the services of the local factories announced to the workers that clocks were ahead and all were on time.

Great Wine Celler in Romania. The most capacious wine cellar in the world is owned by the Romanian government. A railway tunnel 2,000 feet long could not be used for the purpose for which it was intended because of inferior construction, so it was bought to a wine dealer, who turned it into a wine cellar for wine.

Strasbourg's Famous Cathedral.
Strasbourg, capital of Alsace, called the first ark of the Holy Roman Empire by Emperor Maximilian I, is famed for its cathedral and for its dove grove and prized for its commercial and military importance. Its cathedral, whose building extended over four centuries, says a National Geographic society bulletin, typifies the diverse influences to which the city has been subjected. The facade especially presents a singularly happy union of the northern France and German style of cathedral architecture.

Plant That Coughs.
Botanists have records of various plants which act upon man; there are laughing and weeping flowers, and now, according to the Journal de la Botanique, there is the species of "coughing plant." The fruit is like the common fig, but its seeds are so small that you will not see them. There is a hollow of all kinds of dust. As soon as a few grains fall on the leaves the stimulation of air cells which are the throat of the plant, will cause you to cough. There will be the effect of the dust upon the throat, which is the same as the effect of an inhalant.

HILLS LEAVES ROTARY FRIENDS

Although members of the Rotary Club kept assuring one another that their luncheon on Wednesday was not going to be anything like a funeral it was impossible to keep the feeling of regret and sadness caused by the departure of Willis Hills, the "father of the club," entirely in the background. As stated in The Freeman, Mr. Hills goes to Albany to assume the position of district manager for the New York Telephone Company and this was the last meeting of the Kingston Rotary Club. He would attend as an active member. It was Mr. Hills, who caught the "Rotary fever" in Albany, who, aided by A. D. Pardee who caught the same "fever" in Virginia and the late Dr. Frank Keator who had caught it in Utica, held the first conferences that resulted in the organization of the Kingston Rotary Club in 1916.

Vice-President Thomas W. Flemming presided at the luncheon and after Samuel Watts had reported on the case of the blind boy, whose welfare the club has been aiding for some time, that the boy had been out-fitted and sent to the School for the Blind at Batavia, the presiding officer called attention to the fact that this was the last meeting of the club that Mr. Hills could attend. "He came to us with a smile and we mean to send him away with a smile," said Mr. Flemming, who then called on Mr. Hills to tell the story of his life. This story, simply told by Mr. Hills, is largely the story of the growth of the telephone business in the last 23 years and the growth of a man with the business he made his life work.

Mr. Hills began with the old Hudson River Telephone Company, April 18, 1897, and was as he says, first introduced to a bar—not the kind of bar that went out on January 16, but a bar about nine feet in length and an inch and a quarter in diameter and used for digging holes for telephone poles. He thought climbing poles easier work than setting them and learned to be a lineman. Further pursuing "the elimination of the hard end of the game," he got interested in repair work. In 1898 he got the war fever and tried to enlist but was rejected for defective eyesight. Then he memorized the test chart and tried again, read right along fine but was told to get out as he was reciting the chart used the day before.

In 1899 he was appointed special agent at Albany, his work being "first aid to the injured," a sort of emergency man. In 1900 he was made contract agent to solicit new business, a new departure for the company which worked so well that in six weeks the new business offered was so far beyond the ability of the company to take care of it that he had worked himself out of a job. In 1901 he was made local manager of the Troy exchange, an out of date affair located in the building in which "Uncle Tom's Cabin" was played for the first time. It took two years to rebuild and modernize the system and Mr. Hills was in charge in Troy for nine years, during which time the Hudson River Company was absorbed by the New York Telephone Company. In 1910 he became district manager of the northern district with headquarters in Glens Falls and covering northern New York to the Canadian line. After two years in Glens Falls he came to Kingston as district manager and now goes to Albany in the same capacity. The relative importance of the two districts is shown by the fact that the Kingston district has 27,000 telephones and the Albany district has 68,000. The Kingston city exchange has 4,384 telephones while the Albany city exchange has 23,000.

Mr. Hills gave an interesting explanation of the pension and insurance system the New York Telephone Company maintains for its 42,000 employees.

In leaving Kingston Mr. Hills said he felt that while leaving he was not losing the many friends he had here. He felt that in Kingston he had made friends while in other places he had made acquaintances. His Kingston friends were invited to call on him when in Albany but would not meet him in the Albany Rotary Club as the telephone classifications there were all filled, so in leaving Kingston he became an involuntary past Rotarian.

This little thing was promptly fixed up by the Kingston Rotary Club when it adopted a resolution offered by Mayor Canfield making Mr. Hills an honorary member of the Kingston club, which gives him the right to visit any club in this country at any time.

Everybody knows that the Finest A-Cure-Wind is being quick results. Try them

President Wilson will see the hot days of Washington's Summer for the cool breezes of the Massachusetts coast. The residence of Charles R. Crane, newly appointed Minister to China, has been placed at the disposal of the President and his family. The beautiful home is at Woods Hole, Mass. It commands a view of Vineyard Sound, and its pretty grounds are surrounded by villas of equal magnificence.

Post's Lefty Position.

Among the British men of prominence probably the one who most frequently refused money was Robert Browning, the poet. During the last twenty-five years of his life editors offered large sums for a short poem from his pen. But Browning said "No." He told his friends when they pointed out the unwisdom of this course that he was determined not to thrust his poems down the throats of people; that if they wanted to read him they could buy his books.

Bubble in a Sapphire.

There is exhibited in the British museum a sapphire weighing nine carats and containing a bubble that appears and disappears with changes of temperature. It is believed that a cavity in the gem encloses a quantity of carbonic acid gas under great pressure. When the temperature is such as to correspond with the "critical point" for the gas, under the particular pressure to which it is subjected in its brilliant prison house, it liquefies and becomes visible as a bubble.

Held Whiskers Sacred.

If the beard has any standing in the world today, it is undoubtedly because of the Jews, who held their whiskers to be sacred, and swore by them. Later, the Turks did the same. The sultan's followers used to comb their whiskers after prayers, catch the hairs that came out, break them in two and bury them, on the theory that in some mysterious way the hairs helped to make soft walking to the gates of paradise. This the Turks still believe.

WHY

Underground Workers Are Superstitious

Underground workers in coal and other mines are full of superstitions, some of which are extremely weird. Darkness means mystery, and imagination has created various belongings that are commonly believed to lurk in such subterranean places.

For instance, there is the "ladder dwarf," a black-headed demon with a large head and enormously long and powerful arms. His favorite trick is to climb the ladders in mines and, as he passes the rungs, to kick them out one by one.

In Germany the mines are haunted by two supernatural beings called Nick and Kobold—the former being benevolently disposed and the latter evilly mischievous. They are the causes when $1 or empty the lodes. Nickel, if properly propitiated, will reproduce metal-bearing ores as fast as they are removed.

Kobold, on the other hand, will steal away the metal from the lodes. He blows out the miners' lamps and, if he catches a man alone he may drag him about by the nose or hair. If he has a special grudge against an individual miner he will throw him down a ladder or crush him beneath a downward fall of rock.

To gain the good-will of these formidable goblins the miners leave bread, cake and even money in odd places. And as a special means of appeasing them, two metallic objects and cobalt, have been named after them.

HAVE NO BUSINESS SCRUPLES

Why Firms That Have Dealings With the Wily Jap Must Be Keenly Alert and Watchful.

A British firm once contracted to deliver a piece of machinery to Tokyo, but because of some unavoidable delay was unable to live up to its contract. Fearing lest the Japanese consular should make efforts to collect the money indecently due them for non-delivery, according to the Living Age, the Japanese agent of the British firm so, to the home office a suggestion for avoiding payment. Mr. B. is the English agent of the same firm, also stationed in Japan.

"Regarding the matter of waiving penalty for non-delivery of machine, there is a way to creep around same by diplomat. We must make a statement of big strike occur in our factory (of course big untrue). Please address my firm in enclosed form of letter and believe this will avoid penalty of case. As Mr. B. is a most religious and competent man and also heartily upright and godly, it fears me that unless early for his signature, please attach name by Yokohama of fire-making force, but as cause to fear prison happening, as this is often eyes ated by other merchant of highest integrity.

"It is highest unfortunate Mr. B. as a profiteer and excessive awkward for business purpose. I think much better add little scribble which is upright method and so found a good business edifice."

In these few sentences, concludes the Living Age, lies all the wisdom of the East applied to all the wisdom of the West.

Cultivate Patience.

Patience is one of the finest attributes of character. It may be based on great self-control; it may also be based on true foresight. As an example of self-control, it is wise because everything comes to him who waits. The whirling of time brings in its resources—and its rewards. Patience, as a matter of calculation, is creditable to the intelligence.—Samuel J. Desmoud.

BACK FROM HONORS IN WEST

Alfred H. DeNike Returns After Resigning as General Manager of Big Western Telephone Company—Will Go Into Business.

There will arrive in this city Wednesday another of Kingston's young men who went away to make good and, being a live wire, did so. This man is Alfred N. DeNike, son of Mrs. K. DeNike of 13 Franklin street, with whom he will spend a few weeks and renew old boyhood friendships in town, made before he left for Denver, Col., about twenty years ago, where he began a career which he can be proud of. Mr. DeNike, while a young man lived with his grandfather, the late Alfred Hudler, for a number of years superintendent of the Kingston water works system. After going west Mr. DeNike became connected with the Mountain States Telegraph and Telephone Company, and advanced because of his attention to his duties and proven capabilities to division general manager, in charge of the western division of the telephone company, which comprises the states of Utah and Idaho, with headquarters at Salt Lake City, Utah.

Mr. DeNike about two weeks ago resigned his position and the Salt Lake Tribune of Wednesday, March 10th, devotes a half column in telling of Mr. DeNike's resignation, printing his picture, saying among other things:

F. H. Reid of Denver, general manager for the company, said, "We are sorry to lose Mr. DeNike. He has been with the company a long time and is valuable in more ways than one. However, I understand his idea of trying to get into business. He would have to work here a long time before he could start up a new telephone company. He will be missed."

Continuing the Tribune says: Mr. DeNike is a native of Kingston, N. Y., but has been in the west for twenty years. He began working for the Colorado Telephone Company of Denver eighteen years ago in the contract department. When he left Denver he was special representative to the vice-president and general manager of the Mountain States Telephone and Telegraph Company, into which the Colorado Telephone Company had been merged. He had worked in practically every part of the business before coming to Salt Lake City eight years ago.

"I have been in the telephone business for the last eighteen years," said Mr. DeNike, "and it was not an easy matter for me to make the change. I have been considering the proposition for several months. There are trying times in the public utility business, but there is a fascination in telephone work that appeals to me. My associates here and elsewhere in the employ of the company have been and are the finest to be found."

OUR DAILY PATTERN.

A Stylish Costume—Waist 3038, and Skirt 3040.

For this attractive creation, one could have taffeta in jade green combined with fine lace in a deep ivory tint, crepe meteor and Georgette would also combine nicely for this style.

The waist pattern is cut in six sizes
24, 26, 28, 30, 32 and 34 inches bust measure. The skirt in six sizes, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30 and 32 inches waist measure. For the entire dress it will require eight yards of 42 inch material for a medium size. The skirt measures about 1 2-3 yard at the foot.

This illustration calls for two separate patterns, which will be mailed to any address on receipt of 12 cents for each pattern.

HAMILTON CLUBS HERE SATURDAY

The Hamilton Musical Clubs will give their entertainment in the High School auditorium on Saturday evening, April 3, at 7:45 o'clock as arranged and before announced.

AT THE THEATERS.

Geraldine Farrar and Lou Tellegen at Keely's.

"Flame of the Desert," the latest of Geraldine Farrar and Lou Tellegen successes, will be presented at Keely's theater tonight and tomorrow. Among the players in the splendid supporting cast are Edythe Chapman, Alec Francis, Macey Harlam and Casson Ferguson.

The popular Wallace Reid will be at the Auditorium tonight in "The Love Burglar," an adaptation of the stage play "One of Us." Tomorrow William Russell in "Hobbs in a Hurry."

At the Opera House tonight Tom Mix will be seen in "The Feud." The opening episode is laid in the blue grass region in the days of hoop-skirts and romance. Tomorrow and Saturday the super-special, "When Bessie Went Dry."

The next stage offering at the Opera House will be "Bringing Up Father in Society." Tuesday night. The play is founded on the cartoons of George McManus. All the famous characters, including "Jiggs," "Mother" and "Dinty" will be seen. The cast is large, including a chorus.

The Poet.

The poet doth not only show you he way, but giveth so sweet a prospect into the way, as will entice any man to enter into it: nay, he doth, as if your journey should be through a fair vineyard, at the very first give you a cluster of grapes, that full of that taste you may long to pass further. He cometh to you with words set in delightful proportion, and with a tale, forsooth, he cometh upon you: with a tale which holdeth little children from play, and old men from the chimney corner.—Sir Philip Sidney.

Reflection.

All the world used her ill, said this young person, and we may be pretty certain that persons whom all the world treats ill deserve the treatment they get. The world is a looking glass and gives back to every man the reflection of his own face. Frown at it, and it will in turn look sourly upon you; laugh at it and with it, and it is a jolly, kind companion; and so let all young persons take their choice.—Thackeray.

Candlemas Day.

On Candlemas day the Christmas decorations are taken down in the churches, as it is the Feast of the Purification, or the Presentation of Christ in the Temple. The term Candlemas is used owing to the practice of the early church, when lighted candles were carried in the procession in memory of Simon's words at the presentation of the infant Saviour: "To be a light to lighten the Gentiles."

On the Other Side.

Little Philip had cried all night with sorrowful and upon receiving a nickel the next morning he went as usual to see candy again. His aunt, on coming home, and finding he had brought candy with her nickel, asked him: "What, Philip, I thought you weren't ever going to eat candy again?" To which he replied: "Well, auntie, I'm not eating this candy on the toothache side."

ONE CENT A WORD ADVS. BRING RESULTS

Free Yourself of Rupture Without Pain, Operation or Loss of Time

FOR the benefit of our readers we take pleasure in publishing the Brooks offer to save all who are ruptured from wearing painful makeshift trusses that do not cure.

The Brooks Appliance Co. gladly sends their remarkable patented Appliance ON TRIAL to prove that it holds the rupture back, keeps it in place, prevents it coming down or slipping out and finally assists Nature to heal up the rupture.

No man or woman ever can look and feel his or her best while suffering the torment, pain and discomfort of rupture.

Every day that you suffer from rupture—every hour of truss torture that you endure—after you read this page is your own fault.

For many years we have been telling you that no makeshift truss will ever help you. We have told you about the harm ill-fitting trusses are doing. We have told you that the only truly comfortable, sanitary and scientific device for holding rupture is the Brooks Rupture Appliance.

Now we offer to prove it to you, entirely at our risk. We will send you a Brooks Rupture Appliance on trial. If you really want to be rid of your rupture fill out the coupon below and mail it today.

Instead of wearing a steel spring or inflexible harness, try the velvet-soft Brooks Appliance.

Instead of the old hard or stuffed pad, use the soft rubber automatic air-cushion of a Brooks Appliance.

The Brooks Appliance clings to you without force and you are hardly conscious of its presence. But above all else, it HOLDS always.

Within an hour after you receive the Brooks Appliance, if you take advantage of this remarkable trial offer, you will throw away your truss forever.

Over 685,000 People Have Accepted This Offer. Why Not You?

Doesn't that prove that the Brooks Appliance is not an experiment but a positive success—that it does all we claim for it? Among these 685,000 men, women and children there must be hundreds whose condition was identical with yours. Can you afford not to investigate and satisfy yourself when it costs you nothing to prove what the Brooks Appliance will do for you?

This wonderful device is a triumph of scientific and mechanical genius, the outcome of more than 30 years experience
